

Women in Command

Excelling as Female Leaders

Location: Springhill Suites Charleston Room
322 Main St, Deadwood

Date: May 2-3, 2016

Time: 8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Hotel Info: Springhill Suites (The hotel has set aside a block of 30 rooms at the state rate of $55.00)

Call Cadillac Jack's Front Desk at 605-578-1500 for reservations

Instructed By Lt. Cyndy Velazquez

- Commander, Investigations Unit
- Team Leader, DuPage County Major Crimes Task Force
- Master's Degree in Organizational Behavior, Bachelor's Degree in Law Enforcement Administration
- Defensive Tactics and Physical Fitness Instructor
- Named Instructor of the Year, Suburban Law Enforcement Academy

Women in Command is an energetic and interactive two day course conceived, constructed and taught by successful female law enforcement executives. Leadership is a combination of both innate talents and learned skillsets. This seminar examines those traits found in proven successful leaders and accomplished agencies. Being a female leader in a male dominated profession has its own distinctive set of issues. Over the two days we will engage in lively discussions in an open forum populated by current and future women law enforcement leaders. Topics examined will include:

- Creating an Effective Organizational Climate
- Leadership Qualities Unique to Women
- Leading in a Male Dominated Profession
- Mentoring and Leading by Example
- Learning from Successful Female Leaders
- Breaking Through the Glass Ceiling
- Self Examination

For More Information or to Register, Please Contact:

Sgt. Tony Maunu at 605-773-2066 or register by sending name, email, department, and phone number to tony.maunu@state.sd.us

SD LET Grant will cover registration fees.

Rooms, meals, travel expenses are the individual agency's responsibility.

The block of rooms for May 1-3, 2016 will be held until April 1, 2016, or until the block is filled.

This training opportunity is open to female employees in law enforcement, corrections, and dispatch.